

Pay with your home currency using DCC

Simply offer more services with DCC: international cardholders benefit from an attractive and transparent service.

DCC from SIX Payment Services stands for Dynamic Currency Conversion. This function enables you to help your international customers feel at home when paying. Thanks to DCC, your customers can pay the total amount directly in the currency of their card. Your terminal identifies the card currency and automatically suggests payment with DCC. This means that customers can choose which currency to pay in by pressing a button.

For whom is DCC of interest?

DCC is suitable for everyone who regularly serves guests or customers from abroad.

The exchange rate guarantee

Your international customers obtain the best exchange rate from you. We will refund the difference if one of your customers makes a further payment at the POS

(physical shop) with the same card on the same day that is converted using a better exchange rate. This does not entail any extra effort on your part. Your customer can have the difference credited directly by SIX Payment Services.

Which cards support DCC?

- Visa
- V PAY
- Mastercard
- Maestro

DCC with a single click!

SIX Payment Services also offers convenient payment with DCC for e-commerce. With just a click, your international customer can choose whether to pay with DCC or to process the transaction regularly.

Advantages for you

You benefit from the following advantages with DCC:

- Exchange rate updated daily
- Exchange rate guarantee for payment at the POS – a convincing argument for DCC
- All leading currencies are available for DCC
- No additional effort – same payment processes as before

Advantages for your international customers

DCC also offers numerous advantages for your international customers:

- Exchange rate guarantee for payment at the POS – builds confidence in DCC
- Cardholders can pay in the currency of their card
- Transparency – your customers immediately see on the terminal the amount they will actually pay in their card currency
- Also attractive for business customers – information for expense accounts is available immediately
