

Identification duties in relation to the anti-money laundering law – Data record update (EULUX)

The law related to the fight against money laundering and terrorist financing obligates payment service providers to identify their clients as well as their beneficial owners. Such identification has to be verified on a regular basis and must be complemented with up-to-date supporting documents. SIX Payment Services (Europe) S.A. is obliged to carry out this data record update and assures its clients of the utmost diligence with respect to the personal data confided to it.

This form can be downloaded and filled in electronically. Use the following link to do so:

Beneficial owners

SIX Payment Services (Europe) S.A. is obliged to identify the "Beneficial Owner(s)". In terms of the anti-money laundering law, the beneficial owner is the natural person who ultimately owns or controls the Merchant's company; in particular any natural person directly or indirectly holding or controlling at least 25% of its voting rights or capital shares.

The following query helps you to correctly assign possible beneficial owners. Please cross the option which applies to the company:

- 1. The Merchant's company is a sole proprietorship, and the sole proprietor is the only beneficial owner.

If this form of beneficial ownership applies to the company, it is sufficient to complete the "Legal representative 1" section with your personal data, sign the form and enclose a legible copy of a valid personal document prior to submission.

- 2. The Merchant's company is not a sole proprietorship. There are one or more beneficial owners directly or indirectly holding/controlling a stake of at least 25% in the company.

If this form of beneficial ownership applies to the company, the complete records of all beneficial owners have to be filled in. In the event of more than 2 beneficial owners, you are kindly asked to capture their data on a copy of page 2 of this form.

Prior to submission, all forms need to be signed and accompanied with the supporting documents required.

- 3. There are no beneficial owners in terms of the anti-money laundering law.

- The company is listed on the stock exchange.
 Nobody directly or indirectly holds a stake of 25% or more in the company.
 Other _____

If one of these options applies to the company, it is sufficient to complete the "Legal representatives" section, have the form signed by the representatives and return it enclosing the supporting documents required.
